

BOLDUC WOULD VOTE FOR A NATIONWIDE ABORTION BAN

BOLDUC SAID HE WOULD ALWAYS VOTE FOR ANTI-ABORTION LEGISLATION AND WOULD SUPPORT A NATIONAL ABORTION BAN

Bolduc On Audio: “I’m Not Going To Vote Contrary To Pro-Life ... I Will Never Go Against That Principle.”

BOLDUC: “I’m unapologetically pro-life, right? So, if I’ve got a part of the state that wants me – I’m not going to vote contrary to pro-life. I respect life from the beginning to the end. I saw too much destruction. I’ve held little babies. I know the value of life and I believe that health care exists to save lives. Health care exists to improve your life, not take one. And I will never go against that principle.” Dover Republican Committee Meeting, [12/16/21] (AUDIO)

Boston Globe: “Bolduc ... Vowed Not To ‘Vote Contrary To Pro-Life.’” “New Hampshire is one of the more pro-abortion rights states in the country, with 70 percent of voters saying they support such rights in a recent poll. Hassan characterized her views on abortion as allowing women to make their own health care decisions, and her campaign noted several past remarks from Bolduc including that he “rejoice[d]” at the Supreme Court decision erasing the right to abortion. He also vowed not to “vote contrary to pro-life” last year.” Boston Globe, [9/14/22]

Bolduc Endorsed Legislation That Could Send Doctors To Prison For Performing Medically Necessary Abortions. “Bolduc is similarly opposed to abortion access. He has called to defund Planned Parenthood and has campaigned with anti-abortion rights groups dedicated to making abortion illegal. Both Messner and Bolduc have endorsed legislation that could send doctors to prison for providing legal, medically necessary abortions.” Union Leader, [7/1/20]

ASKED ABOUT A NATIONAL ABORTION BAN, BOLDUC TOLD WOMEN TO “GET OVER IT”

Asked About A National Abortion Ban, Bolduc Told Women To “Get Over It.” WMUR’S ADAM SEXTON: “The issues that are going to come up here, obviously, abortion is one of them. We’ve seen Senator Lindsey Graham say he’s going to be bringing forward a 15 week abortion ban, a bill that’s similar to one that’s been discussed in the past. It’s no longer hypothetical here. How would you vote on that bill if you’re in the U.S. Senate?” BOLDUC: “Well, I’d vote no. And everyone knows I’m pro-life. Right. But I would vote no on that because the federal government is way too much in our business. That is a misguided piece of legislation. I would rather have Lindsey Graham put legislation forward that we can all agree to when we get Maggie Hassan out and go vote so that we can change our economy, become fiscally responsible, and secure this nation. That’s what we need federal government out. It’s where it belongs. Granite Staters will be better served by working through their legislature to to address that issue, not the federal government. And she just wants to hang on for dear life. Well, guess what? Your views are not consistent with the average Granite Stater, number one. Number two, get over it. This is about the economy, fiscal responsibility, and the safety and security of this nation, which you cannot defend.” WMUR, CloseUp, [9/18/22] (VIDEO)

BOLDUC: “YOU CANNOT SUPPORT ABORTION, YOU CANNOT”

Bolduc On Video: “You Can Not Support Abortion. You Cannot.” BOLDUC: “The purpose of health care is to make people healthy, to keep people healthy and to save lives. And so by virtue of that, you can not support abortion. You can not.” Fireside Chat, [7/10/20] (VIDEO)

BOLDUC: “YOU DO NOT COMPROMISE ON THE ISSUE OF LIFE”

Bolduc On Video: “You Do Not Compromise On The Issue Of Life.” “You do not compromise on life from the beginning to the end. That is non-negotiable. And if we’re going to have people, that are going to compromise on life. Healthcare isn’t taking a life. Health care is giving life and saving life and protecting life.” WSMN, Life with Liz, [6/30/21] (VIDEO)

Boston Globe: “Bolduc ... Spoke Of ‘No Compromise’” On Abortion. “She focused in particular on Bolduc’s full-throated endorsement of abortion restrictions in the past, when he spoke of “no compromise” on the issue of “life,” a phrase that generally reflects outlawing abortion entirely.” Boston Globe, [9/14/22]

BOLDUC CALLED ON SUPPORTERS TO “REJOICE” THE OVERTURNING OF ROE V. WADE

AUDIO: Bolduc Called On An Audience To “Rejoice” The Decision Overturning Roe V. Wade. "The Judicial Branch, up until the past couple of days, has been legislating from the bench. And that's the job, last time I checked, of Congress. So we got some pretty good decisions out of them, one of them today, why don't we just rejoice that one right now, Roe v. Wade." Don Bolduc, Government Integrity Project Speech, [6/24/22] (AUDIO)

Boston Globe: “Bolduc ... ‘Rejoice[d]’ At The Supreme Court Decision Erasing The Right To Abortion.” “New Hampshire is one of the more pro-abortion rights states in the country, with 70 percent of voters saying they support such rights in a recent poll. Hassan characterized her views on abortion as allowing women to make their own health care decisions, and her campaign noted several past remarks from Bolduc including that he ‘rejoice[d]’ at the Supreme Court decision erasing the right to abortion. NHPR: “...Calling The Overturning Of Roe V Wade Cause For People To ‘Rejoice.’” “Hassan points to Bolduc’s past statements on abortion — including his criticism that New Hampshire’s 24-week abortion ban is too lax, and calling the overturning of Roe v Wade cause for people to “rejoice.” NHPR, [9/16/22]

Fox News: Bolduc Told Supports To “Rejoice” The Overturning Of Roe V. Wade. “The quote in the EMILY’S List ad cites a June 24 speech Bolduc gave, where he criticized SCOTUS ‘legislating from the bench’ before adding that ‘we got some pretty good decisions out of them, one of them today, why don’t we just rejoice that one right now, Roe v. Wade.” Fox News, [9/15/22]
